JANNIE'S STORY

A training video for parents and professionals

This highly acclaimed dramatisation of one child's experience of being traumatised whilst in care of her mentally ill and alcoholic birth mother has been used to great effect to convey what it feels like to be Jannie. The video is in four parts.

Format Video Cost; £100 + VAT

BEEN THERE DONE THAT

Parents talking about their experience of adoption

This video is the third in our series of training videos. First-hand, frank and honest accounts are given by six parents, outlining, with hindsight, the highs and lows of becoming an adoptive parent, and the lessons they feel other parents could learn from their experience. Each story is intershot with comments on adoption by members of the public and each parents' story is a trigger video for discussion.

Format Video Cost; £100 + VAT

WHAT FEELINGS

Children's experience of fostering and adoption

This video is the second in a series of videos designed to enhance the preparation and training of foster carers and adoptive parents. It conveys real-life experiences of children placed in foster homes or adoptive families.

Format Video Cost; £100 + VAT

DAN HUGHES, A VIDEOED CONVERSATION

The impact of trauma on children and how foster families and adoptive families can help them

TRAUMA, ATTACHMENT AND FAMILY PERMANENCE

Fear can stop you loving

Foreword by Daniel A. Hughes

Edited by Caroline Archer and Alan Burnell

Exploring the complex issues of trauma, attachment and family placement, the contributors to this book provide a variety of complementary perspectives on practice in this area. Focussing on how to integrate attachment theory and developmental psychology in practice with adopted or fostered children, they emphasise the need for understanding of early trauma and its effect on child development.
Cost; £16.95 (plus £3 p&p)

NEW FAMILIES OLD SCRIPTS

A guide to the language of trauma and attachment in adoptive families
Caroline Archer and Christine Gordon
Foreword by Alan Burnell

Most adopted children and their families will, sooner or later, encounter the challenges of dealing with unresolved attachment issues or early traumatic experiences. This Guide for Adoptive Parents is an
