What is Family Futures?

A Guide for Young Children

Family Futures is a place where children who are fostered or adopted can come to help them feel happier.

As you don't live with your birth parents sometimes you might feel...

scared

angry

The adults at Family Futures are here to help you and your parents together.

How will we do this?

By talking to you and finding out what you feel and think

By talking to your parents and brothers or sisters

By playing, drawing, painting, story making, puppets and other fun stuff
